

Inhospitable to Human Trafficking, sponsored by AAHOA Group Training Questionnaire

Please answer a few questions before the training begins.

Date of Training: _____

1. First Name: _____

2. Last Name: _____

3a. Employer name: _____

3b. Employer address

Street: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

4. Job Title/Function: _____

5. Work Email Address: _____

If unavailable, please enter an email address where your certificate of completion should be sent.

6. Work Phone Number: _____

7a. Are you currently employed in the hospitality industry?

- Yes
- No

7b. If yes, are you the general manager or owner of a hotel?

- Yes
- No

7c. If yes, within the past year, how many suspected victims of human trafficking have been identified at your hotel? (Optional and confidential. Used for research purposes only.) _____

8. How would you rank your knowledge about human trafficking?

- 1 = very low
- 2 = low
- 3 = moderate
- 4 = high
- 5 = very high

9. Do you believe that most prostituted people choose prostitution?

Please provide your opinion. Your answer to this question will not impact your certificate of completion.

- Yes.
- Somewhat, I assume there must be some hard life circumstances that put them there.
- No, I assume that most are forced, coerced, or abused into prostitution.

STOP here.

After the training, please answer the following questions:

10. Which of the following statements are true about sex trafficking? (Check all that apply.)

- Sex trafficking only happens to people under age 18.
- Sex trafficking always involves movement across borders.
- Sex trafficking always involves (a) force, fraud, or coercion or (b) a minor.

11. What risks does sex trafficking pose to a hotel? (Check all that apply.)

- Safety risk
- Risk to reputation
- Civil liability
- Criminal liability

12. What is true about sex buying? (Check all that apply.)

- Sex buying drives demand for trafficked people.
- Sex buying brings sex trafficking into hotels.
- Sex buying poses serious risks to buyers, including risk of arrest.

13. Below is a list of possible indicators of sex trafficking. Mark an "X" based on how likely you believe an item can indicate sex trafficking.

	Very Strong Indicator	Strong Indicator	Possible Indicator
Guest has physical altercation with a "boyfriend" or "date."
Visitors knocking on doors at regular intervals.
Guest's address is local.
Guest checks in without luggage.
Minor is in a hotel room during a school day.
Guest is an adult with an unrelated minor.
Unusual number of used towels, condoms, or phones.
Guest or visitor will not make eye contact.

14. What can you do to prevent sex trafficking from occurring at your property? (Check all that apply.)

- Make it known that criminal activity is not tolerated at your hotel.
- Have an active relationship with law enforcement.
- Register the make and license of all vehicles.
- Require that all guests enter through the lobby.
- Monitor foot traffic in and out of rooms.

15. Which of the following are indicators of labor trafficking? (Check all that apply.)

- A person crosses a border without correct documentation.
- A person controlling or speaking on behalf of another person.
- A person's passport and documents are controlled by another person.
- A person is unsure of their whereabouts.
- A person's pay is taken by another party.
- A foreigner is working as a cleaner.
- There is evidence of abuse.
- A person is living in employer controlled housing.

16. After training, how would you rank your knowledge about human trafficking?

- 1 = very low
- 2 = low
- 3 = moderate
- 4 = high
- 5 = very high

17. Do you believe this training will impact the ability of hotel staff to prevent sex trafficking incidents from occurring?

- 1 = worse ability
- 2 = somewhat worse ability
- 3 = no impact
- 4 = somewhat better ability
- 5 = much better ability

18. How will this training impact the safety of your hotel?

- 1 = much less safe
- 2 = somewhat less safe
- 3 = no change
- 4 = somewhat safer
- 5 = much safer

19. After training, do you believe that most prostituted people choose prostitution?

Please provide your opinion. Your answer to this question will not impact your certificate of completion.

- Yes.
- Somewhat, I assume there must be some hard life circumstances that put them there.
- No, I assume that most are forced, coerced, or abused into prostitution.

20. Please rate this training.

- 1 = Very poor
- 2 = Poor
- 3 = Neutral
- 4 = Good
- 5 = Very good

We would love your feedback on how we might improve the training content or experience.

To receive credit for completing the course, please mail this form to:

BEST
1201 1st Ave S, Ste 321
Seattle, WA 98134

This training course provides a generalized introduction to human trafficking. Human trafficking laws and requirements vary by region. Please consult an attorney for legal advice.

*You acknowledge that, by submitting this questionnaire, you agree to be subject to BEST's terms and conditions, which can be found at:
<https://training.bestalliance.org/terms-conditions/>.*